Tract (Ps 21: 2-9, 18-19, 22, 24, 32)

1. My God, my God, look upon me, why have you forsaken me?
2. My words of sin have drawn me far from salvation.
3. O my God, I call by day and you give no reply; I call by night and not without reason.
4. Yet, you dwell in the sanctuary; you are the praise of Israel.
5. Our fathers placed their hope in you; they trusted and you delivered them.
6. They cried out to you and they were saved; they put their hope in you and they were not confounded.
7. But I am a worm and no man; scorned by men and despised by the people.
8. All who see me mock at me, they make mouths at me, they wag their heads.
9. “He trusted in the Lord; let him deliver him, let him rescue him, for he delights in him.”
10. And so they looked and gazed upon me; they divided my garments among themselves, and for my raiment they have cast lots.
11. Save me from the mouth of the lion; my afflicted soul from the horns of the unicorn.
12. You who fear the Lord, praise him! All you sons of Jacob, glorify him.
13. A future generation shall be announced on behalf of the Lord, and the heavens will declare his justice.
14. Unto a nation to be born, and whom the Lord has prepared.
