Dedication

Dedicated to all those who earnestly strive to advance the cause of good hymnody, in our churches, schools and homes. May the present volume aid them in enhancing the beauty of worship and in attaining the spiritual rewards and graces which such worship constantly seeks.
FOREWORD

The hymns contained in the following pages have been drawn from some of the best available sources. The origins of some of them are not known with any degree of exactitude due to the long and nearly untraceable popular usage to which they have been put. Their long establishment in the repertoire, however, is the best approbation they could have.

The viewpoint of the editors has been that this should be a fundamentally congregational collection in both style and scope. To this end the hymns have been placed in the most convenient voice ranges, and every factor which could enhance the value of the collection as an aid to good congregational hymn-singing has been emphasized.

The value of hymn singing is not to be underestimated. It is one of the most effective means for synthesizing the spirit of a parish or community in public worship. In the singing of a vernacular hymn, the individual and the group merge their intentions and both derive profound spiritual benefits therefrom. As was once said by Dom Columbo Marmion, O.S.B.: “Lend your voice to the Word, that He may use it as His organ to praise the Father.” We are convinced that this is precisely the effect on the individual of a tradition of good hymn-singing.

Hymns have been excerpted from the following Gregorian Institute publications: Catholic Hymns by Rev. John C. Selner, S.S., Christ the King Hymnal by Rev. A. F. Knauff, V.F., Mediator Dei Hymnal by Cyr de Brant. We also wish to acknowledge the use of the hymn “O Holy Joseph” which has been arranged for unison singing from the three-part setting found in Our Lady of the Lake Hymnal and Choir Book, composed by Sister Mary Elaine, C.D.P., and published by the Gregorian Institute. A unison arrangement has been made of this setting. We also wish to express our gratitude to McLaughlin and Reilly Co., Boston, Massachusetts, for kind permission to use the hymn “Mary the Dawn” from the Pius X Hymnal.

Two of the hymns have been newly edited. These are number 11, “Jesus Christ Is Risen Today,” for which the music has been arranged, and number 15, “God, Father, be Thou Praised,” which has been newly translated from the German and for which a new accompaniment has been provided.

Lastly, we wish to thank the members of the Community which has made this publication possible, the Sisters of St. Joseph, of Brentwood, New York, and the compiler, Sister Catherine Cecilia, C.S.J. The adoption of these hymns for their use in the many schools served by this community will be the means of carrying this excellent standard of hymn-singing to thousands of young people who will eventually become the standard-bearers of the tastes and traditions of their generation.

6. I See My Jesus Crucified

1. I see my Jesus crucified, His wounded hands and feet and side, His sacred flesh, all rent and torn, His blood-stain'd crown of sharp'est thorn.

2. Those cruel nails, I drove them in Each time I pierced Him with my sin; That crown of thorns, 'twas I who wove When
   I despised His gracious love.

3. Deep grave-en on my sinful heart, Oh, never may that form de-part, That with me always may abide The thought of Jesus crucified.

7. O Sacred Head Surrounded

1. O Sacred Head surrounded By crown of piercing thorn! O bleeding Head so wound-ed Res-trife, And death, with cruel rig-or, Be-me With Thy most sweet com-pasion, Un-viled and put to scorn! Death's pal-send hue comes-reaving Thee of life; O ag-o-ny and-wor-thy though I be: Beneath Thy Cross a-

2. I see Thy strength and vig-or All fading in the o'er Thee, The glow of life de-cays Yet dy-ing! O love to sin-ners free! Je-bid-ing For-ev-er would I rest, In

8. At the Cross Her Station Keeping

1. At the Cross her station keeping,
   Stood the mournful Mother weeping,
   All His bitter anguish bearing,

2. Thru her heart, His sorrow sharing,

3. O, how sad, and sore distressed,
   Now was she, that Mother blessed
   Of the sole begotten One.

4. Woe begone, with heart's prostration,
   Mother meek, the bitter Passion
   Saw she of her glorious Son.

5. Who could mark, from tears refraining,
   Christ's dear Mother, uncomplaining,
   In so great a sorrow bowed?

6. Who, unmoved behold her languish,
   Underneath His cross of anguish,
   'Mid the fierce, unpitying crowd?

7. For His people's sins rejected,
   She, her Jesus, unprotected,
   Saw with thorns, with scourges rent.

8. Saw her Son from judgment taken,
   Her beloved in death forsaken
   Till His Spirit forth He sent.

9. Fount of love and holy sorrow,
   Mother, may my spirit borrow
   Somewhat of thy woe profound.

10. Unto Christ, with pure emotion,
    Raise my contrite heart's devotion,
    Love to read in ev'ry wound.

11. Those five wounds on Jesus smitten,
    Mother! in my heart be written,
    Deep as in thine own they be.

12. Thou, my Saviour's Cross who bearest,
    Thou thy Son's rebuke who sharpest,
    Let me share them both with thee!

13. In the Passion of my Maker,
    Be my sinful soul partaker,
    Weep till death, and keep with thee.

14. When my earthly frame shall perish,
    Grant around my soul to flourish
    Eden's joys that never fade.

STRASSEBURG 1750 (ALT)

1. Happy we, who thus united
2. Mary! thou alone wert chosen
3. Joseph! thou wert called the father

Join in cheerful melody;
Virgin Mother of thy Lord:
of thy Maker and thy Lord;

Praising Jesus, Mary, Joseph,
Thou didst guide the early footsteps
Thine it was to save the Savior

In the Holy Family,
Of the Great Incarnate Word.
From the cruel Herod's sword.

Jesus, Mary, Joseph help us,
Dearest Mother! make us humble;
Suffer us to call thee father,

That we ever true may be,
For thy Son will take His rest
Show to us a father's love:

To the promises that bind us
In the poor and lowly dwelling
Lead us safe through every danger

To the Holy Family
Of a humble sinner's breast.
Till we meet in heav'n above.

Lest the tempter me confound.
Faithful friend and trusty guide.

Lead me through this world of dangers,
Let me daily grow more holy;
Aid me in the last dread combat,

Till I come above to thee.
Keep my soul from sin e'er pure.
When death's terrors me surround.
Ne'er, ne'er leave my side.

46. Holy God, We Praise Thy Name!

1. Holy God, we praise Thy Name!
   Infinite Thy vast domain,
   Lord of all, we bow before Thee!
   All on earth Thy scepter claim,
   All in heav'n above adore Thee:
   While in essence only One,

2. Hark! the loud celestial hymn,
   Fill the heav'ns with sweet accord;
   Angel choirs above are raising!
   Cherubim and Seraphim,
   In unceasing chorus praising;
   Everlasting is Thy Reign.

3. Holy Father, Holy Son,
   And adoring bend the knee,
   While we own the mystery.
   Holy! Holy! Holy Lord!
   Undivided God we claim Thee:
   While we own the mystery.
