

GRADUAL & ALLELUIA • Tenth Sunday after Pentecost, EF (Ps 16: 8, 2) Keep me, Lord, as the apple of thine eye, shelter me in the shadow of thy wings. Vs. May my vindication come from thee, may thine eyes see the right. ALLELUIA, ALLELUIA. (Ps 64: 2) Vs. A hymn of praise is thy due, O God, in Sion, and vows shall be offered thee in Jerusalem. ALLELUIA.

FSSP in Los Angeles • <http://fssp.la> Possible Starting Pitch = F

C Ustódi me, Dómi-ne, ut pupíllam óculi:
Keep me, O-Lord, in the-pupil-of Thine-eye:

sub umbra alárum tu-árum prótege me. Vs. De under shadow of-wings of-Thee protect me. From-the vultu tu-o judí-ci-um me-um próde-at: óculi tu-i countenance of-Thee let-the-judgment of-me come-forth: let-eyes of-Thee

ví-de-ant aequi-tátem.
behold-the-things that-are-equitable.

*The only congregational hymnal
for the Traditional Latin Mass*

CCWATERSHED.ORG/CAMPION

VIII

A L- le- lú- ia. * ij.

Vs. Te decet hymnus, De-us, in Si-on: et ti-bi red-
To-Thee should-be given-a-hymn, O-God, in Sion: & to-Thee shall-détur votum in Jerúsalem.

be-paid a-vow in Jerusalem.

*At this time, the
"Alleluia" is sung
straight through.*