Iberásti nos, Dómi-ne, ex affli-génti-bus
Thou hast delivered us, O Lord, from them that afflict us: & them that us hate Thou hast put to shame. In those who afflict us; and those who hate us thou hast put to shame. Vs. All day we will glory in God and in thy name give thanks for ever. God we will glory all the day: & in the name of Thee we will give praise for ever.

De-o laudábi-mur tota di-e, et nómi-ne tu-o con-fi-tébi-mur in saécula.
All day we will glory in God and in thy name give thanks for ever. Alleluia, alleluia. (Ps 129: 1-2) Vs. Out of the depths, O Lord, I have cried to thee; Lord, hear my voice. Alleluia. Begin on F

Allelúia. * i.

Vs. De profúndis clamávi ad te, Dómi-ne: Dómi-ne, exáudi orati-ónem me-am.
From the depths I have cried to Thee, O Lord: Lord, hear the prayer of me.

* The Alleluia is now sung straight through.