

INTROIT • 3rd Sunday of Advent, EF (Philip 4: 4-6) Rejoice in the Lord at all times. I will say it again: rejoice. Let all men experience your courtesy; the Lord is near. Do not be anxious over anything; in every need, let your requests be made known to God in prayer and petition. (Ps 84: 2) Thou hast blessed, Lord, thy land; thou hast brought the house of Jacob back from captivity. FSSP in Los Angeles • <http://fssp.la> Possible Starting Pitch = E

1 G Au-dé- te * in Dó-mi-no sem- per : í-te-rum
Rejoice in the-Lord always: again di-co, gau-dé-te : mo-dé-sti-a ve-stra no-ta sit I-say, rejoice. modesty of-you known let-it-be ómni-bus ho-mí-ni-bus : Dómi-nus pro-pe est.

to-all men: (For) the-Lord nigh is.

Ni-hil sol-lí-ci-ti si-tis : sed in o-mni o-ra-[Let nothing trouble you:] but in everything

ti-ó-ne pe-ti-ti-ó-nes ve-stra-e inno-té-scant a-pud by-prayer requests of-you let-them-be-made-known to

De-um. Ps. Be-ne-di-xísti, Dómi-ne, terram tu-am : a-ver-
God. Thou-hast-blessed, O-Lord, land of-Thine: Thou-hasttísti capti-vi-tá-tem Ia-cob. Show your congregation ancient liturgical manuscripts at Mass:

-turned-away captivity of-Jacob. CCWATERSHED.ORG/CAMPION

MODE I G Lóri-a Patri, et Fíli-o, et Spirítu-i Sancto. * Sicut erat in princípí-o, et nunc, et semper, et in saécula saecu-lórum. A-men.