2. Nothing more sweet can be sung, nothing more pleasant can be heard, nothing more lovely can be thought of, than Jesus, the Son of God.

3. O Jesus, the hope of penitents, how kind art Thou to those who pray! How good to those who seek Thee! But what to those who find?

4. No tongue can tell, nor can written word express it: only one who knows from experience can say what it means to love Jesus.

5. Mayest Thou, O Jesus, be our joy, as Thou wilt be our reward: in Thee be our glory forever.
