15. Virgin holiest, Virgin purest,
Of that anguish thou endurest
Who while keeping watch unsleeping,
Long as I may burn with thee...
18. And when the judgment-day comes on,
To that flame which burns for ever,
Let me weep as thou hast wept;
Weep for Jesus crucified.
19. Savior, when the veil is riven,
Heart pour forth its flood of tears:
Let me weep for Jesus crucified:
Weep for Jesus crucified.
20. When my soul hath cast its burden—
Won by Thee in Paradise!
When my body bear the death
That my soul may at length reign—
Rejoice in its bliss.
16. By the Cross, our mother stood
In thy death, by its side;
On the Cross, the Mother
Of the sole-begotten One;
14. By the cross my vigil keeping
Deeply print the wounds, the smart
Of the sole-begotten One!
Of the sole-begotten One;
12. By the Cross, on which suspended,
Stamp the marks of crucifixion
In my heart each wound renew
In my heart each wound renew
13. Oh, that Mary, mother of Sorrows,
Weep as thou hast wept;
Weep as thou hast wept;
11. Print, O Mother, on my heart,
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
10. Make my heart to God returning,
Of my Savior's chastisement.
9. Earth and heav'n his cause forsaking,
There he hangs in expiation;
8. She beheld her Son so sweet
She beheld her Son so sweet
7. Victim-priest of Jewry's nation,
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
6. Can the human heart refrain
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
5. Lives there one can see untearful
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
4. O the swelling grief upwelling,
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
3. Such a sadness hath no other
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
2. With the nails his hands were given,
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
1. By the Cross, our mother stood
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
16. Let compassion so I fashion
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
15. Holy Mother, this impart,
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
14. By the Cross of our Lord suspended,
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
13. O the sadness and affliction
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
12. With the cross of our Lord suspended,
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
11. Blessed Mother of prediction,
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
10. May it love—on fire within me—
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
9. Fount of love and sacred sorrow,
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
8. Saw her precious Son forsaken,
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
7. For His people's sins atoning,
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
6. Can the human heart refrain
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
5. Who is he whose weeping eyes
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
4. O the swelling grief upwelling,
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
3. Such a sadness hath no other
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
2. With the nails his hands were given,
Of my Saviour's chastisement.
