

Second Sunday of Lent

A THOUGHT FOR SUNDAY

Saint Augustine in the readings of Matins a couple days ago, points out that those who were transfigured in today's Gospel all fasted for 40 days.

Moses fasted for 40 days while getting the Commandments on Sinai. Elias fasted for 40 days after his challenge with the worshipers of the false god Baal, and as he walked across the desert to settle in a cave on Mount Horeb.

Our Divine Master fasted for 40 days before he began preaching the Gospel.

Thus the three of them, representing the Old Law, the Prophets and the Gospel, all fasted for 40 days.

Let us be encouraged as we continue our Lenten fast. We are in good company. Saints fast now, and celebrate later. Sinners celebrate now, and fast later.

Save the celebration for the party that matters - the celebration of Eternal Life!

*God bless you,
Fr Fryar*
