

Last Sunday After Pentecost

A THOUGHT FOR SUNDAY

I never quite figured out what all the concern was with the end of the world. But I guess even since the time of Christ people were worrying about it!

Imagine if a baby in the womb of the mother was consumed with anguish that he was going to be born! We who are on the other side of the womb know that there is much more to existence after birth than before.

The same could be said about this life compared to next, and this world compared to next. The only reason why someone actually worries about the end of the world is because they are too attached to it and don't want it to end.

We need to live each day as if it were our last. We need to live our lives as if the end of the world would come before we die. If we are prepared for the surprise visit of our Master, then we will await with joy the beginning of the New Day, not tremble with fear at the end of this!

*God bless you.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Christmas gifts? That's the dilemma of this time of year. Consider giving a Christmas gift to your friends that will help our building fund, and also bring awareness of the project of establishing the FSSP of LA parish. Give them a mug! See what else Gary Castro has.

Fr Fryar is still away on retreat. He will be returning on November 29th. Anything that is needed during that time can be attended to by Fr Masutti.

The evening talks after the 7pm Mass on Tuesdays at St. Victor's will resume on the first week of December

Catechism is being planned for Friday afternoons at 5 PM at St. Victor's. We will have two age groups, roughly younger children and teens.

Our first meeting will be on December 9th, at St. Victor's, at 5 PM.

You should have received a few of the FSSP of LA Christmas Cards in the mail. In order to reduce shipping costs you were only sent one of each. If you would like more, please see Gary Castro. The cards are free. However it is recommended to give a donation toward the building fund when you return the envelope of names to be included during the 12 Days of Christmas Masses.

If you are interested in joining our young adults group, see Fr Masutti or Margaret Walsh

Happy Thanksgiving!!
