

Twenty Third Sunday After Pentecost

A THOUGHT FOR SUNDAY

You may never notice the volume number at the top of each bulletin. Or maybe you do. I tend to be the person who can read and love a whole book and not know the title because I skip that part!

However this bulletin is number 100! This is a mile marker week! We have been celebrating the Mass at St. Victor's for 100 weeks!

I'd like to extend a special thank you to Monsignor Murphy who has welcomed us and supported us for quite some time now. A special thank you to all of St. Victor's who have made us a part of their parish family and have been so hospitable to us!

One hundred is a nice number. It has been 100 times that we have heard the choir sing what is considered by some as the best church music in Los Angeles. Thank you to all of you who dedicate your time and sing so well!

Thank you also to the servers, many of whom have been taught how to serve or who taught others how to serve during this time!

Thank you to the ushers, to Victor who is always preparing the missals and welcoming the newcomers! Thank you to the hospitality team who work so hard on the potluck after!

We must give thanks, however, for the most important thing: to have been given the opportunity one hundred times, to give glory to God.

May God be blessed!

*God bless you.
Fr Fryar*

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Fr Masutti will be away today and for the next few days. He is replacing Fr Kenneth Fryar in Mexico City so that he can go the FSSP ordinations that took place yesterday.

Fr Fryar will be away during November on retreat. He will be leaving on October 27th and returning on November 29th. Anything that is needed during that time can be attended to by Fr Masutti.

All Souls Day envelopes will be available today, for you to give your intentions to remain on the altar during November. Please fill out the envelope with those you wish to have remembered, place an optional donation if you wish, and then put the envelope in The Box.
