

Sixth Sunday after Epiphany

THE SUNDAYS AFTER EPIPHANY THAT WERE INTERRUPTED BY SEPTUAGESIMA ARE RESUMED AT THIS TIME

A THOUGHT FOR SUNDAY

Archbishop Fulton Sheen once gave the example that we should be like pencils in the hand of God. If the pencil had it's own will it would be useless. When we would want it to write God, it would write doG.

The Kingdom of Heaven is like a mustard seed. What is that mustard seed? Well, it could be us. Each, individually, if we remain small and humble God can give us the increase, and we can become like large trees of grace. But if we want to be bigger than a seed, maybe we would never be a tree.

He who thinks himself to be something is really not even what he thought he was.

It is by going lower, that we can rise higher. It is by abasing ourselves that we can be filled with God's grace.

*God bless you.
Fr Fryar*

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Christmas gifts? That's the dilemma of this time of year. Consider giving a Christmas gift to your friends that will help our building fund, and also bring awareness of the project of establishing the FSSP of LA parish. Give them a mug! See what else Gary Castro has.

Fr Fryar will be away during November on retreat. He will be returning on November 29th. Anything that is needed during that time can be attended to by Fr Masutti.

We will not have the evening talks on Tuesdays at St. Victor's during the month of November. They will resume on the first Tuesday of December. We will still have Mass as usual at 7 PM.

Fr Masutti will be giving the Monday evening talks as usual, after the 7 PM Mass.

You should have received a few of the FSSP of LA Christmas Cards in the mail. In order to reduce shipping costs you were only sent one of each. If you would like more, please see Gary Castro. The cards are free. However it is recommended to give a donation toward the building fund when you return the envelope of names to be included during the 12 Days of Christmas Masses.

Fr Fryar will be on EWTN! As you remember Father was invited during Holy Week to be with Fr Mitch Pacwa on EWTN Live. Because of a scheduling conflict the show was recorded and will broadcast this Wednesday, November 16th at 8 PM ET (5 PM Pacific Time). Don't miss it!

It will be re-run on Wednesday 16th at 10 PM (Pacific), Thursday 17th at 6 AM (Pacific) and 1 AM (Pacific) on Sunday Nov. 20th.
