

Sacred Music Symposium

“Best Practices: Working with amateur church choirs”

LOS ANGELES, CA • 29 MAY – 31 MAY

Your chance to work with:

DR. HORST BUCHHOLZ

- Choirmaster, Cathedral Basilica of St. Louis, MO
- Vice-President, Church Music Association of America
- Sacred Music Director, Archdiocese of St. Louis

DR. ALFRED CALABRESE

- Choirmaster, St. Rita Catholic Church in Dallas, TX
- Internationally-known conductor, educator, author, composer, and clinician • Protégé of Robert Shaw
- Founding Director, “The Britten Choir”

Also on the faculty:

JEFF OSTROWSKI

- President, Corpus Christi Watershed

MEAGHAN KING

- Organist & Conductor (FSSP.la)

FR. JAMES FRYAR, FSSP

- Chaplain, Fraternity of Saint Peter (FSSP.la)

View the complete schedule of events and sign up:

CCWATERSHED.ORG/SYMPOSIUM

Conference fee just $135 thanks to a generous donation!

St. Victor Church • 8634 Holloway Dr. • West Hollywood, CA 90069

BUCHHOLZ

CALABRESE

THIS SYMPOSIUM is aimed at helping and giving tools to music directors who desire to implement the authentic treasury of sacred music, whose value is “inestimable” according to the Second Vatican Council.

OSTROWSKI

KING

FR. FRYAR

Sponsored by FSSP.la • Space is limited.