PREFACE

The First Holy Communion of our dear children and the administration of the holy Sacrament of Confirmation are the most touching events in the life of every parish. The sacred memories of these two great days are likely to leave a life long impression. The great thing, of course, on each occasion, is the Sacrament itself and the wondrous grace imparted. Still, it is quite evident that the preparation for the worthy reception of these Sacraments and the solemnity surrounding their reception are important factors in the proper celebration of these great events.

Beautiful hymns, expressing in simple, childlike words and sweet devotional melodies the innermost emotions of the soul, appropriate to these occasions, are sure to stir the hearts of the children and of the faithful who assist at these sacred ceremonies. The present collection of Hymns will, I believe, serve this noble purpose.

A few additional Hymns in honor of the Blessed Sacrament, the Blessed Virgin, Saint Joseph and the Guardian Angel have been added for use at the afternoon or evening devotions. The simplest and perhaps most beautiful of all the Gregorian Masses, has been included also, to enable the children to sing at least the Ordinary of the Mass, thus preparing the way for congregational singing.

An old adage says: "Bis orat, qui bene cantat",—that is to say, "He that sings well, prays twice." May this little collection of Hymns serve to intensify the spirit of prayer in our children and in the faithful at large.

I wish to acknowledge my indebtedness to the Rt. Rev. Msgr. P. Griesbacher, who has kindly written most of the splendid harmonizations of the Hymns, as also to René L. Becker, Mary E. Downey and Christopher O'Hare, who have given valuable aid in the arrangement of the Hymns. The Index gives full information, both as to the source of the text and the music. To the firm of J. Fischer & Bro., who have assumed the responsibility of publication, and to all who have in any manner contributed to the Hymnal, I wish to express my sincere thanks.

IMPORTANT

A Careful Reading Is Recommended of the following

PRACTICAL HINTS

For the Proper Rendition of all Hymns

A fundamental condition of good singing is to express as perfectly as possible the meaning of the words. Besides attending to the note values it is therefore important to attend also to the text, giving proper emphasis to word accents and making at least a short stop where the sense requires it.

Good, intelligent reading is the basis of good, intelligent singing. The punctuation marks are as important for good singing as they are for good reading. The Crescendo and the Decrescendo is quite naturally contained in the text and should be carefully carried out.

In Hymns that have a Solo part and a Refrain, the Solo part should be sung by a few good voices, and the words should be clearly enunciated so that they may be understood by all. The Refrain is then sung by all.

At the end of a melody there should always be a natural slowing up. Always avoid a slow and draggy movement of the melody.

We should remember that the music of the Church is a prayer and not a concert diversion for the delectation of the congregation.

HINTS FOR PRONUNCIATION AND ENUNCIATION

Every letter, especially the vowels should be clearly sounded and every syllable should be distinctly pronounced. Keep the vowel sounds pure. This is most important as nothing affects the quality of singing like the faulty sounding of vowels.

The Mass Chants should be sung by alternating choirs.

THE ORDINARY MASS CHANT

The ASPERGES is sung during the sprinkling of the congregation with Holy Water just before the Sunday High Mass.

The KYRIE is the first of the Ordinary Mass Chants. It is a remnant of the old practice in the early Church of singing a litany before the Mass. It is an humble cry for mercy—Lord have mercy—Christ have mercy—Lord have mercy—each repeated three times. It is responsory in character and is, therefore, sung by two Choirs. The Chanters intone the first Kyrie as far as the asterisk, it is then taken up by the Choir, which continues alternating to the last Kyrie which, from the asterisk on, is sung by the entire Choir.

The GLORIA, also called the ANGELIC ANTHEM, introduces the words from the song of the Angels on Christmas night, expanding them into a hymn of praise and glory in honor of the Most Adorable Trinity. It is intoned by the Priest and then continued alternately by the two divisions of the Choir. The double bars always indicate the change of Choir. The last sentence and the Amen are sung by the entire Choir.

The CREDO is the solemn act of faith given us by the General Nicæan Council, hence it is commonly called the Nicene Creed. It is intoned by the Priest, and then continued like the Gloria by the two Choirs, alternating at each double bar. The last sentence and the Amen are sung by the entire Choir.

While the Gloria is a hymn of praise and triumphant jubilation, the Credo is an humble, childlike profession of faith. It unites us with all centuries and generations of Christians in the ONE, HOLY, CATHOLIC and APOSTOLIC CHURCH.

The SANCTUS is the continuation of the Preface sung by the Priest, introducing the most sacred part of the Mass. It is the echo of heaven's hymn of triumphant adoration of the All-Holy God. It is intoned by the Chanters and continued by the entire Choir.

The BENEDICTUS follows immediately after the Elevation. It is the loving greeting of the faithful soul to the merciful Redeemer, who through the Consecration becomes sacramentally present upon the altar. According to the Vatican Gradual the entire Choir intones and continues the Benedictus to the end.

The AGNUS DEI is a sweetly devout invocation of the Lamb of God, come to free us from the yoke of sin and the slavery of Satan, to be merciful to us, and grant us peace and rest eternal. The triple invocation is intoned each time by the Chanters and continued by the entire Choir.

All the Ordinary Mass Chants lend themselves admirably to alternating congregational singing. This is especially true of the Gloria and the Credo.

All the solo singing by expert "stars" cannot compare with the wonderful power and the intense devotion of an entire congregation pouring out its heart in sacred song. To hear it even once is a revelation of the power that lies in Church music.

The RESPONSES FOR HIGH MASS are given, since they ought again to become the heirloom of our people.

1. Je - su, Je - su, come to me! Oh, how much I long for Thee!
Come, Thou of all friends the best, Take pos - ses - sion of my breast.
REFRAIN
Com - fort my poor soul dis - tressed, Come and dwell with - in my breast; O, how oft I sigh for Thee! Je - su, Je - su, come to me, Je - su, Je - su, come to me.

The musical score is written for a single melodic line on a treble clef staff with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a 4/4 time signature. The lyrics are printed below the staff. The score includes a first line of music, a second line, a refrain section, and a final line. The music is simple and melodic, suitable for a hymn.

Empty is all worldly joy,
Ever mixed with some alloy;
Give me my true Sov'reign good,
Jesu, Thine own Flesh and Blood.
Ref. Comfort my poor soul distressed,
Come and dwell within my breast;
O, how oft I sigh for Thee!
||: Jesu, Jesu, come to me.:||

3.

On the Cross three hours for me,
Thou didst hang in agony;
I my heart to Thee resign;
O, what rapture to be Thine!
Ref. Comfort my poor soul distressed,
Come and dwell within my breast;
O, how oft I sigh for Thee!
||: Jesu, Jesu, come to me.:||

P.G.

2. Who am I, my Jesus, That Thou com'st to me?
I have sinned against Thee, Often, grievously;
I am very sorry I have caused Thee pain,
I will never, never Wound Thy Heart again.
3. Put Thy kind arms 'round me, Feeble as I am;
Thou art my Good Shepherd, I Thy little lamb;
Since Thou comest Jesus Now to be my Guest,
I can trust Thee always, Lord, for all the rest.
4. Dearest Lord, I love Thee, With my whole, whole heart,
Not for what Thou givest, But for what Thou art,
Come, O, come sweet Savior Come to me and stay,
For I want Thee, Jesus, More than I can say.
5. Ah! what gift or present, Jesus, can I bring?
I have nothing worthy Of my God and King;
But Thou art my Shepherd, I Thy little lamb,
Take myself, dear Jesus, All I have and am.
6. Take my body, Jesus, Eyes and ears and tongue;
Never let them, Jesus, Help to do Thee wrong:
Take my heart and fill it Full of love for Thee;
All I have I give Thee, Give Thyself to me.

2.
 I'm longing to receive Thee,
 The Bridegroom of my soul,
 No more by sin to grieve Thee,
 Or fly Thy sweet control.

3.
 O Lord, Thou art all holy,
 The angels Thee adore,
 How then, ought I sincerely
 My wrongs and sins deplore!

6.
 I praise Thee, I extol Thee,
 I love Thee, O my Sire!
 Till once in joy and glory,
 In heav'n I Thee admire.

4.
 But when Thou soon wilt enter,
 My heart, my sinful heart,
 Then heal me, be my shelter,
 For Thou my Savior art.

5.
 O Lord, how can I thank Thee
 For such a gift as this?
 A gift which truly filleth
 My soul with heav'nly bliss!

2.
 Life without Thy love would be
 Death, O Sov'reign Good, to me;
 Bound and held by Thy dear chains,
 Captive now my heart remains.

3.
 Then, O God, my heart inflame,
 Give that love which Thou dost claim,
 Payment I will ask for none,
 Love demands but love alone.

4.
 God of beauty, Lord of light,
 Thy good will is my delight;
 Now henceforth Thy will divine,
 Ever shall in all be mine.

What Happiness Can Equal Mine

(After Holy Communion)

1. What hap - pi - ness can e - qual mine! I've found the ob - ject of my love; My Je - sus dear, my King Di - vine, Is come to me from heav'n a - bove.

He chose my heart for His abode,
He there becomes my daily bread;
There on me flows His healing Blood,
There with His Flesh my soul is fed.

3.
I am my Love's and He is mine;
In me He dwells, in Him I live;
What greater treasures could I find?
And could ye heav'n's a greater give?

6.
O, that I had your burning hearts,
To love my God, my spouse most dear!
O, that He would with flaming darts
Raise in my heart a heav'nly fire.

4.
O sacred banquet, heav'nly feast!
Thou overflowing source of grace,
Where God the food, and man the guest,
Meet and unite in sweet embrace.

5.
Ye angels, lend your heav'nly tongues
Come and with me in praises join;
Come, and unite, in joyful songs,
Your sweet immortal voice to mine.

2.
'Tis here from my labors I'll rest,
Since He makes my poor heart His abode,
To Him all my cares I'll address,
And speak to the heart of my God.

3.
For life, for death Thou art mine,
My Savior I'm sealed with Thy blood,
Till eternity on me doth shine,
I'll feed on the flesh of my God.

4.
In Jesus triumphant I live,
In Jesus exultingly die:
The terrors of death calmly brave,
In His bosom breathe out my last sigh.

Mother, Into My Heart Today Christ Came

After Holy Communion

Adagio

1. Moth - er, in - to my heart to - day Christ came, a lov - ing guest; The same sweet Lord a Babe that lay, In thy lov'd arms to rest; And to thy throne in heav'n a - bove, I turn that I may win The faith, the gra - ti - tude and love, That shield the heart from sin.

Wilt thou vouchsafe from stain of earth,
 To keep me pure alway?
 Check words of pride and scornful mirth,
 And govern all I say;
 O, may the lips that stole apart,
 Thy dear Son to receive
 Ne'er use a word that His kind heart
 Would willfully aggrieve.

3.

Sweet mother, thou art mine today,
 By more than wonted ties,
 Since Jesus in my poor heart lay,
 In mystical disguise;
 And thou canst hardly think of Him
 Without a thought of me,
 Whose heart held what the seraphim
 In speechless rapture see.

Jesus, Gentlest Savior

After Holy Communion

Andante

1. Je - sus, gent - lest Sav - ior! God of might and pow'r!
 Thou Thy-self art dwell - ing In us at this hour,
 Na - ture can - not hold Thee, Heav'n is all too strait,
 For Thine end - less glo - ry, And Thy roy - al state.

Out beyond the shining
 Of the farthest star,
 Thou art ever stretching
 Infinitely far,
 Yet the hearts of children
 Hold what worlds cannot,
 And the God of wonders,
 Leaves the lowly spot.

3.

O! how can we thank Thee,
 For a gift like this?
 Gift that truly maketh
 Heav'n's eternal bliss!
 Ah! when wilt Thou always
 Make our hearts Thy home?
 We must wait for heaven,
 Then the day will come.

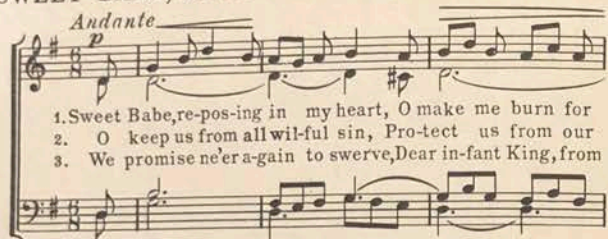

4.

Now at last we'll keep Thee,
 All the time we may;
 But Thy grace and blessing
 We will keep alway,
 When our hearts Thou leavest,
 Worthless tho' they be,
 Give them to Thy Mother,
 To be kept for Thee.

So far sur - pass - ing hope or thought? Sweet Sac-ra - ment, we Thee a - dore;      O! make us    love — Thee    more    and more.

2.
Had I but Mary's sinless heart,
To love Thee as my dearest King.
O! with what bursts of fervent praise,
Thy goodness Jesus, would I sing.
Ref. Sweet Sacrament, we Thee adore;
O! make us love Thee more and more.

3.
O! see upon the altar placed,

Come, Let Me For A Moment Cast (After Holy Communion)

1. Come, let me for a moment cast All earth-ly thoughts a - way, And muse up-on the sacred gift Which I received to - day.

2.
This morning that eternal Lord,
Who is my judge, to be,
Came to this lowly heart of mine,
And stayed a while with me.

3.
With His celestial flesh and blood
My fainting soul He fed,
With tender words of grace and love,
My heart He comforted.

4.
He, Who for me, a trembling Babe
On Mary's heart reclined,
This morning in my heart and flesh,
The Deity enshrined.

5.
O soul of mine! reflect, reflect;
Consider one by one,
What marvels of surpassing grace
Thy God in thee has done.

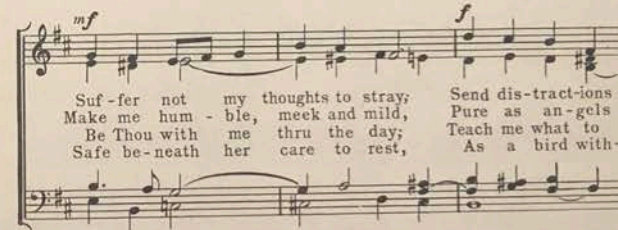

6.
His tender love with love repay;
Extol His sacred name,
To all the world His greatness tell,
His graciousness proclaim.

2.
 Gentle Jesus, look in pity,
 From Thy great white throne above,
 All the night Thy heart is wakeful,
 In Thy Sacrament of love.
 Save us from the wiles of satan,
 'Mid the lone and sleepful night;
 Sweetly may bright Guardian Angels
 Keep us 'neath their watchful sight.

3.
 Shades of even fast are falling,

 O, wonderful, that Thou shouldst let
 So vile a heart as mine,
 Love Thee with such a love as this
 And make so free with Thine.

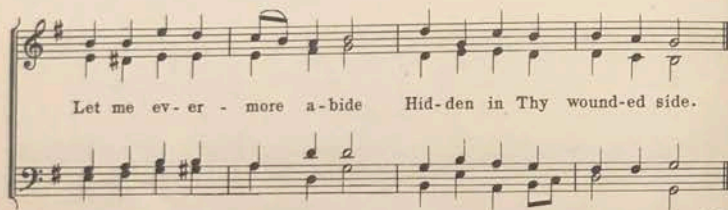

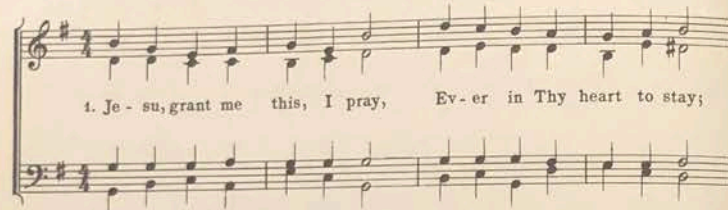

4.
 For Thou to me art all in all,
 My honor and my wealth,
 My heart's desire, my body's strength,
 My soul's eternal health.

2.

Childhood, youth, all vanish, all are fleeting fast;
But thy love, O Mother, will unfailing last;
Mother, O forget me not;
I will e'er remember thee;
Mother, O forget me not;
I will e'er remember thee.

3.

To thee, dearest Mother, my whole heart I give;
Holy, spotless virgin, for thee may I live;
Mother, O forget me not;
I will e'er remember thee;
Mother, O forget me not;
I will e'er remember thee.

Mother Mary, At Thine Altar

1. Moth-er Ma-ry, at thine al-tar, We thy lov-ing chil-dren kneel, With a faith that can-not fal-ter, To thy good-ness we appeal. We are seek-ing for a Moth-er, O'er the earth so waste and wide, And from off the Cross our Broth-er, Points to Ma-ry by His side.

Thou wilt love us, thou wilt guide us,
With a mother's fondest care,
And our Father, God above us,
Bids us fly for refuge there.
Life's temptations are before us,
We must mingle in the strife,
If thy fondness watch not o'er us,
All unsafe will be our life.

3.

So we take thee for our Mother,
And we claim the right to be,
By the gift of our dear Brother,
Loving children unto thee,
And our humble consecration,
Thou wilt surely not despise,
From thy high and lofty station,
Close to Jesus in the skies.

4.

Mother Mary, to thy keeping,
We ourselves to thee confide,
Toiling, resting, waking, sleeping,
To be ever at thy side,
Cares that vex us, joys that please us,
Life and death we trust thee,
Thou wilt make them all for Jesus!
And for all eternity.

Hail, Sweet Mother

(To Our Lady of Perpetual Help)

1. Hail, sweet Moth-er, pure and ho-ly, Help of all who call on thee!
Heark-en to thy chil-dren low-ly Help us, help! we cry to thee.
Free us from all sin and sad-ness Fill our hearts with peace and glad-ness,
O sweet Moth-er, ev-er help! O sweet Moth-er, ev-er help!

P. G.

2.

From all dangers, O! defend us;
Guard us as thy faithful band;
Let thy blessing e'er attend us,
Till we reach the better land.
Help us combat in temptation,
Help us work out our salvation;
O sweet Mother, ever help!
O sweet Mother, ever help!

3.

Help the clergy, all the faithful;
Help the church her rights maintain;
Pray that all who sing thy praises,
May in heaven meet again.
Let no earthly, hollow pleasure,
Rob us of our only treasure,
O sweet Mother, ever help!
O sweet Mother, ever help!
