(The star of heaven, she who suckled the Lord, has uprooted the scourge of death which the first parent of mankind planted. That very star is now worthy to encompass the world, whose wars cut down the people with the sore of dreaded death. O glorious star of the sea, save us from the scourge: Hear us, for the son, denying nothing, honors you. Save us, Jesus! For us, the virgin mother entreats you.)

 tum Dóminum nostrum. ℞. Amen.

DEUS misericórdiae, Deus pietátis, Deus indulgéntiae, qui misértus es super afflictiónem pópuli tui, et dixisti Angelo percuténti pópulum tuum: Cóntine manum tuam ob amórem illíus Stellae gloriósae, cuius úbera pretiósá contra venénium nostrórum delictórum quam dúlciter suxísti; praesta auxiliúm grátiae tuae, ut intercedénte Beata Vírgine María Matre tua et Beato Bartholomaéo apóstolo tuo dilécto ( or else et Sancto Ráphael tuo Archángelo), ab omni peste et improvísá morte secúre liberémur, et a totíus perditiónis incúrsu misericórditer salvémur. Per te, Iesu Christe Rex glóriæ, qui vivis et regnas in saécula saeculórum. R̄. Amen.

(O God of mercy, God of forbearance, God of forgiveness, who was moved to compassion for the affliction of Your people, and who said to the Angel devastating Your people: Hold your hand for the love of that glorious Star, at whose dearest breast You graciously fed against the poison of our sins; grant the help of Your grace, that as Your Mother the Blessed Virgin Mary, and Saint Bartholomew your beloved Apostle (Saint Raphael, your Archangel), we be safely freed from every disease and from an unprovided death, and that we may be mercifully saved from the assault of utter ruin. Though You, Christ Jesus, King of Glory, who lives and reigns, world without end. Amen.)
