

329

This Is the Day the Lord Created

Ps.118

1. This is the day the Lord cre - a - ted; All crea - tures
 2. This is the day of our sal - va - tion; Sing out with
 3. This is the day of great re - joic - ing; God here has
 4. This is the day he shines in glo - ry; He is our

1. come, re - joice and sing! Thank him for his e - ter - nal
 2. hymns of ju - bi - lee! God's might - y arm has struck with
 3. made sal - va - tion known. See how the stone the build - ers
 4. Sav - ior and our Light. Tru - ly our health and our sal -

1. good - ness; Praise him, the ev - er - last - ing King.
 2. pow - er; Shout psalms of joy and vic - to - ry.
 3. ban - ished Now has be - come the cor - ner - stone.
 4. va - tion, Look on his strength with great de - light.

460

1. Is - rael sa - lutes his kind com - pas - sion; Brings hon - or to his
 2. We shall not die but live be - fore him, And all his might - y
 3. This has been done by God al - might - y; To all our eyes a
 4. Thank him for his e - ter - nal good - ness; Praise him, the ev - er -

1. ho - ly name. Let all who fear him know his mer - cy;
 2. works de - clare. Come now and joy - ful - ly a - dore him;
 3. won - drous sight. Thank him for all his deeds of mer - cy;
 4. last - ing King. This is the day the Lord cre - a - ted;

1. Stead - fast, his love re - mains the same.
 2. All who his vic - to - ry will share.
 3. Praise the tri - um - phant Lord of might.
 4. All crea - tures now re - joice and sing!

Text: Psalm 118 paraphrase, J. Dunn. © by author. Used with permission.
 Tune: Rendez à Dieu, L. Bourgeois, +1561.

461